Campaign For Real Ale

Campaigning for Real Ale, pubs and drinkers rights since 1971

CAMRA, the Campaign for Real Ale, is an independent, voluntary, consumer organisation which campaigns for real ale, real pubs and consumer rights. Membership is open to all individuals although corporate entities such as breweries and pubs are not members; we currently have over 130,000 individual members.

If you enjoy real ale or real cider/perry and feel the British pub should be saved why not consider joining us? Check out either of the websites below for the latest special offers and more information.
